Parish Meetings

The next Parish Meeting shall be WEDNESDAY, 19th SEPTEMBER 2018 at the Youth and Resource Centre. Between 19:30 and 21:30, all members of the public are encouraged to attend and can raise any questions or concerns during the public question time slot at the beginning of the meeting.

The Parish Council Invites Parishioners to join the Parish as a Councillor

The Parish Council now has vacancies for five Councillors, this is a voluntary role and no previous experience is necessary; anyone wishing to be co-opted please contact the Clerk at clerk@credenhill-pc.org.uk for an application form.

Clerk Vacancy Update:

Following a resolution at our July meeting, Lee Harper-Smith has now be appointed as the Parish Clerk & Responsible Finance Officer. You can contact Lee on the parish mobile: 07956 447 056, via email: clerk@credenhill-pc.org.uk or through the CCN facebook page.

Ongoing Issues:

Dog Fouling/Litter – We continue to remove litter and dog poo on a daily basis, these are both public order offences and will be treated as such if individuals are caught. We will continue to spend money on this as we have to but do wish we could spend the money on more worth while projects.

Overgrown Hedges/Trees – A number of complaints have been received about overgrown hedges/trees/vegetation and Hereford Council have also received complaints through there report it system on their website. Residents and businesses are reminded that it is there responsibility to ensure that their vegetation does not obstruct paths or roads but please do check for nesting birds prior to cutting hedges at this time of the year. If you are unsure about hedge cutting restrictions then check here first:

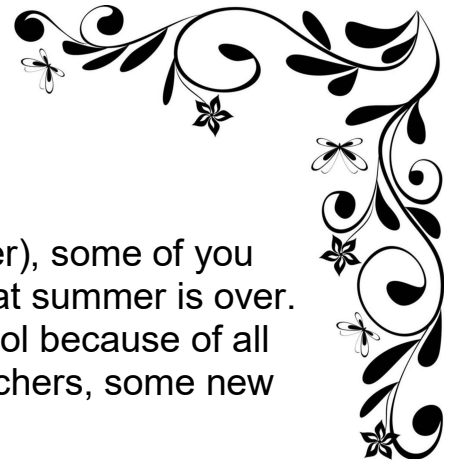

<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/countryside-hedgerows-regulation-and-management>

Parking on pavements – If you are parking along a narrow road, where parking wholly on the road would stop other cars, and particularly emergency vehicles, from getting through, then it is a sensible option to park partially on a pavement, providing there are no parking restrictions and providing you are not blocking a wheelchair user or pram from using the pavement.

The Vicar's Letter

Dear Friends,

It's back to school time again! If you are school age (or a teacher), some of you are probably feeling excited. Some of you may be a little sad that summer is over. You may feel nervous or a little scared about going back to school because of all the new things that you will have to face. You will have new teachers, some new friends, and some of you may even be going to a new school.

On the first day of school, the teacher will probably ask some questions to see how much you already know. When the teacher asks a question to which you know the answer, you might wave your hand excitedly in the air and say, "I know! I know!" It is a great feeling when you know the answer, isn't it? It certainly helps to take away those "Back to School nerves."

When I went to secondary school I didn't know a single other person in the school (apart from two unkind fifth formers from my village who made my life miserable!). But I didn't go alone to school; I went knowing that Jesus was with me in Spirit. It was Jesus who prompted me to make new friends, to behave my self and to do my very best work. Of course, I sometimes made mistakes, as we all do, but God always forgives us when we take time to say sorry and turn away from doing those things we know we shouldn't do. So always be ready to say sorry to God and to those you have hurt and your slate will be clean!

As a Church in Credenhill we pray regularly for our school here and we have been praying daily for pupils and staff throughout the summer holiday; we will continue to pray for you all as you begin the new school year; and we will be praying for those who are beginning at their new schools. And prayer is powerful: God always hears and answers our prayers!

With Every Blessing,

Rana

AUGUST 2018

Summer is almost over, and what summer we have had! Glorious weather and exciting developments at your Hall. Having been awarded the grant last month we very quickly found that, while planning to renovate one area, several other things came too light which need attention and so your committee continued the good work by applying for yet more grants. If we are lucky this will enable us to address issues of heating and a kitchen. It does mean we must wait a little longer for our plans to come to fruition, but better to wait a little longer and enjoy greater benefits

It is with regret we see the end of the Families Group who have been with us for a year, but with diminishing numbers they have decided they will not be renewing their sessions at present

Log on to our new webpage credenhillcommunityhall.org.uk to book or see what is on in your local Hall and make it a thriving center of your community

We are delighted to say that many children parties are held in the Hall. It is a good space for little ones to run around and we are constantly trying to improve the facilities to encourage people to use the venue. So if you are looking for a safe environment for a children's event please contact us.

Don't forget if you have an event coming up and would like to hold it in a pleasant, light, airy hall with a large outside grassed area [big enough for a marquee] then come along and have a look at Credenhill Community Hall. We can give you details of license holders who will provide a bar for your function if you need one. What is more it will not break your budget! Please contact us for more information.

Credenhill Park Wood to close for tree thinning works to regenerate ancient woodland

Credenhill Park Wood near Hereford is due to close for a short period from mid-September for tree thinning work as part of an ongoing programme of ancient woodland restoration.

WOODLAND TRUST

The work at the Woodland Trust owned site will look to restore the ancient semi natural woodland to some of its former glory by thinning conifers planted in the 1960s that are shading out many important woodland plants.

Credenhill Park Wood is a well-loved and iconic feature in the landscape sitting atop a steep hill and surrounded by Herefordshire farmland. The wood is crowned with a nationally important Iron Age Hill Fort enclosure.

The Woodland Trust said the work at Credenhill Park Wood is part of a UK-wide programme to restore woods that date back from at least 1600 but have more recently been planted with non-native species. Conifers such as the Norway spruce and Douglas fir seen at Credenhill Park Wood block out the sunlight and damage the rich and ancient ecosystem below.

Georgie Barnard, Woodland Trust contracts manager said: “By careful woodland management, letting light back in through the canopy, important ancient woodland species can thrive again. We hope local people will be sympathetic to the closures and recognise the long-term benefits to these woods.” The closure will be from the week beginning 17 September 2018 and will be for approximately three months.

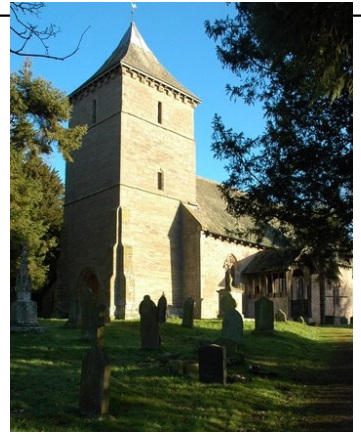

The work, which is being overseen by the Woodland Trust, will focus on selective thinning of the conifer plantations. Rather than clear felling, this approach of selective thinning, felling, coppicing and ride management, encourages natural regeneration. The aim is to restore the site to a predominantly mixed native broadleaved canopy with a rich understory of native trees, shrubs and other plants.

While conifer trees will remain part of the overall long-term make-up of the wood, they will not shade out the remnants of ancient woodland plants and trees.

The Woodland Trust has already cleared part of the hill fort, revealing an impressive open space at the top of the woods. Further work has also taken place over the past year to improve the tracks through the wood, which have previously been muddy and waterlogged. Visitors to the woods after they re-open, will see the most notable differences caused by the thinning in the southern part of the hill fort.

During the works, the entire wood and car park will be closed to the public as thinning is taking place across a wide area of the woods and the car park will be required for timber stacking and machinery storage. The closure is essential for the safety of both the contractors and public. It is estimated that it will take three months dependent on weather and ground conditions, please see our website for updates.

Churchwardens' Report

It seems a very long time since the Vintage Vehicles, Day but we would like to say a very big thank you to those who supported us in any way. There were a huge number of vehicles on display and the weather was perfect. A special thank you to Gordon Batchelor and his family, the few members of the church who helped to set it all up and clear it away, Jason Oates, the tea ladies and the people who helped with the draw. £1,400 was made. St Michael's Hospice and Headway will be given £350 each and St Mary's Church £700.

Many people are busy creating poppies to celebrate the centenary of the end of WW1. We hope to fill the village with poppies. We will put displays in church, at the tree, at the war memorial and on the green at the entrance to Trenchard Avenue. We would be happy if as many as possible could decorate your homes/windows/doors etc with poppies. We would like as many organisations to be involved as possible. So far the school, Credenhill Court, the Brownies and Rainbows have offered to make poppies. Some will be knitted, some painted pebbles, some felt, some recycled pop bottles. We are having a poppy making day on Thursday, September 13th from 10 – 1 at 5, Mill Close when we hope people will join us to make poppies. Materials will be provided. Do come along and enjoy the satisfaction of creativity. Nothing will be too complicated.

We are currently organising the Remembrance Parade which we hope this year will be from Trenchard to the war memorial (outside the school). Following the service in the school we hope villagers will join us for a Peace Lunch. The Parish Council have kindly agreed to support this. More details to follow.

What do you want from your village church?

Obviously, some of the things we try to do are not what most people want, as they are poorly supported. We want to develop a real feeling of community belonging. We want people to be proud to be part of Credenhill. We are NOT just about fund raising.

We appreciate how busy everyone is. We know that most of the village do not want to or are unable to attend services on a Sunday morning because of other commitments.

We don't want to organise events for a restricted group, we want to involve as many people as possible. We are encouraged by the growth of Messy Church and the involvement of groups in our festivals, but there are many people in our community who feel isolated and we would like you to tell us what we can do for you?

We will shortly be having a gathering to discuss how we can provide more for the community and would welcome ideas. Talk to any member of the PCC, or drop us a line (8, Hillside View, 3, the Mews, 5, Glebe Close, 10, Meadow Drive, 78, Ecroyd Park, 35, Ecroyd Park) or email dorrie.coates@aol.com. Better still watch out for the date of our gathering in next month's CCN and come and tell us in person what you would like.

Our next community event will be the Harvest Supper Celebration on Thursday 11th October at 6:30. Join us for a hot supper followed by a short celebration service. More information next month.

We have noticed a growing number of visitors to the church and try our best to make it welcoming. The main part of the churchyard is looking neater again, though Tom Fitch would still welcome help from anyone who can spare a few hours. We try to make the inside pleasant with flower arrangements and again we would be happy if there is anyone who could contribute to this either by doing a flower arrangement or providing flowers. Jean Bowles would be happy to discuss this with you. Tea and coffee are provided in church for visitors.

With an aging congregation and the lack of a fund-raising group finances continue to be stretched. We have managed to pay £6,500 of our Parish Contribution to the Diocese this year leaving a further £5,500 owing.

We appreciate all donations and the many different ways people give to church. I would ask you to consider giving regularly through direct debit to help with the upkeep of the building and to ensure the future of the church in Credenhill. Bank details are as follows: PCC Credenhill, Sort Code : 30-94-14, Account Number : 00359034, If you are a tax payer we can claim back the tax you have paid on the donation you give, for example if you give £10 a month we will get £30 back making your gift worth £150 for the year.

Thank you

Dorrie Coates and Jean Bowles. Churchwardens.

CREDENHILL FRIENDSHIP CLUB.

I think you will all join me in saying a Big Thank You to Kath and Larry for cooking us a great BBQ. It was not just cooking, Larry cleaned all the BBQ and then both did all the shopping. It was a great night, thank you both.

Well we are almost there, hope you are ready for your Mystery Trip!

On Thursday 6th September, the bus will be outside Credenhill Shops at 9.00 a.m. I will do the attendance list when you are getting on the bus it's easier that way. It is fine if you wish to bring a Walker or Electric Buggy's etc.

I can't give you a time for your return

But will let you know in plenty of time so you can let folk know who are picking you up. You do not need to bring a picnic as there will be

Places to eat. Fingers crossed for good weather.

If you look at your Friendship Diary you will see that our next speaker on the 4th October is Hilary Jones talking on "What it means to be child in care".

Very interesting.

For those folk who are interested in our Club please come to visit us at Credenhill Social Club the first Thursday every month at 7.30p.m you will be made most welcome, or phone me on 760115.

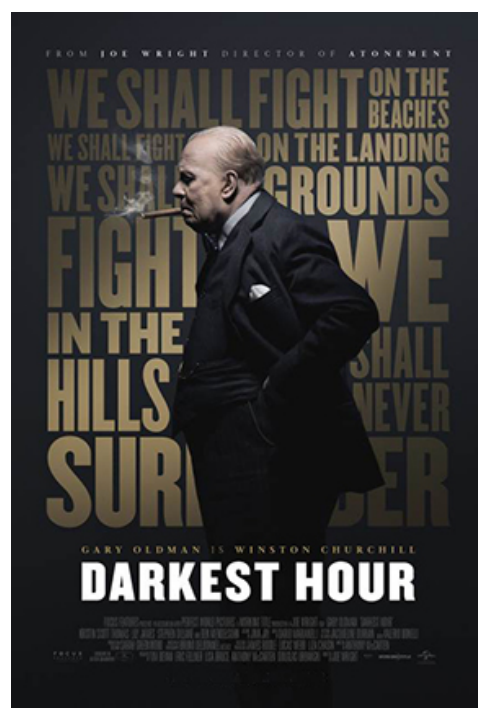

Well everyone looking forward to seeing you all September 6th

Flicks in the Sticks at Simpson Hall

Friday 7th September: Darkest Hour (PG)

Within days of becoming Prime Minister of Great Britain, Winston Churchill must face one of his most turbulent and defining trials: exploring a negotiated peace treaty with Nazi Germany, or standing firm to fight for the ideals, liberty and freedom of a nation. As the unstoppable Nazi forces roll across Western Europe and the threat of invasion is imminent, and with an unprepared public, a skeptical King, and his own party plotting against him, Churchill must withstand his darkest hour, rally a nation, and attempt to change the course of world history.

St Michael's Hospice newsletter

How we can help:

The incredible support St Michael's receives from the community means your local hospice is now providing more care to more people for longer periods of time. St Michael's mission is to ensure that end-of-life care is available to everyone who needs it, including patients, family and friends. We want to enable people to do the things they want to do and make their life easier and more comfortable.

All care at St Michael's is provided free of charge, and people can be referred by any health or social care professional involved in their care.

We care for cancer and non-cancer patients, and because everyone's illness is unique, we offer a range of different treatments.

Our regular outpatient clinics and support groups can give people the confidence and advice to help them live well with their illness.

For example, people with fatigue and breathlessness can benefit from courses offering practical advice. Our occupational and physiotherapists can help alleviate or control a range of symptoms, and with personalised exercise programmes and home adaptations, they can make a real improvement to independent living.

Our person-centred approach means we also provide psychological and emotional support through our counselling service and social care team.

Visiting the Hospice offers people a chance to socialise, make new friends and take part in activities that range from arts and craft sessions to informative talks.

If you would like to find out more about how we can help you, or if you want to join a nursing team which cares, visit st-michaels-hospice.org.uk or call 01432 851 000.
