CREDENHILL PARISH COUNCIL NEWSLETTER

Parish Meetings

The next Parish meeting is to be held on WEDNESDAY 20 NOVEMBER 2013 at the Youth and Resource centre (preschool). All members of the public are encouraged to attend.

Parish council

There is now just 1 vacancy on the parish council. If you are interested then please contact the clerk for more information. Thank you.

Neighbourhood planning

Many thanks to all those that responded to the recent neighbourhood plan form. Unfortunately, due to ill health Ecroyd Park has yet to be collected. Parish councillors will be collecting the forms over the next few weeks. If yours has not been collected before the 4th November then please let the parish clerk know. The results of the 840 resident's survey will be published in next month's CCN.

Planning

The Parish council has received the following planning application: Development of land adjacent to Cross Farm. Application number 132230/O. Closing date for comments has now passed and the parish council has opposed the application.

Rubbish Bins.

The parish council regularly receive complaints about the amount of dog waste within the village. As such we have looked into the cost of installing red dog waste bins but due to our location the cost of having these emptied is extremely high. The parish council are now looking at installing more green bins throughout the village to help with this problem. Hereford council has confirmed, that dog waste once it has been bagged can be disposed of in the green bins. Please do not bag it and then leave it. Use the bins.

School coach consultation.

A meeting was held on the 15th October at St. Mary's school to discuss the possible reduction in funding for school coaches to Weobley and the proposed changes to school catchment areas. The meeting chaired by District councillor Mathews was very well attended by locals. The parish council along with Cllr Mathews is continuing to work to resolving this issue.

Christmas Trees.

Once again this year the parish council has kindly agreed to provide Christmas trees to houses on Station Road. If you are interested then please contact the clerk.

Parish website

The new parish council website will be launched soon. Details to follow next month. The parish council would like to send it's thanks to Keith Wilkinson who has volunteered to undertake this work.

To contact the clerk/ parish council please email: clerk@credenhill-pc.org.uk

Credenhill Church Funday

The main raffle prize for a weekend's use of a new BMW was won by District Councillor Bob Mathews. Bob very kindly asked for the prize to be put up for auction and the money raised be given to the committee to add to the proceeds.

The current bid is £100. If you are able to make a better offer then please contact Mr. Batchelor on 01432 760312.

Finally, on behalf of Credenhill a huge well done to Mr and Mrs Batchelor and their team of supporters for organising the Fun Day. It was the most successful day both in terms of money raised and entertainment.

My father (Mr Hugh Gascoyne) thoroughly enjoyed his time at the Credenhill Church Fun Day - a day that really catered for all ages. Thanks so much to those who organized such a fun filled day, in support of worthwhile charities.

My brother and I were born in Northolt Drive, when Dad was still in the RAF at Credenhill. We moved to Germany, followed by Lincolnshire and then returned to Hereford in the late 60s. Dad joined the RAF as a young man and still happily lives in Credenhill. Many people from the village know my father and often see him out on a walk down Mill Lane.

Volunteer – Make a difference !

Onside is a registered charity providing independent advocacy to vulnerable adults facing disadvantage through mental and physical ill health, learning disability and old age, depression, dementia, autism, learning difficulties. We provide our service across Herefordshire and we are currently looking to train more volunteers from your local area.

Advocacy is a way of supporting and empowering people to ensure that they have their voice heard and their wishes made known to others and we are looking for volunteers to provide this support in their local area. It can involve just supporting someone attending appointments, gaining access to services, benefit review support and information gathering.

Joan one of our volunteers recently commented:-

"I thoroughly enjoy my time volunteering, supporting people with all sorts of things. Volunteering with Onside is really rewarding as they provide a great training programme and lots of support which allows me to gain new skills, meet new people and give back to my community"

Onside's Volunteer Co-ordinator, Claire Watkins, said "Our volunteers give their time, their passion and enthusiasm, we need continued help from willing volunteers who would enjoy supporting vulnerable people in their local community."

Volunteering with Onside is a flexible commitment; as little as 4 hours a month can be given with full training and the option to work towards an Open College Network qualification offered.

Volunteers enjoy the flexible aspect of our work along with the chance to join in at our local social events we run for volunteers including quiz nights and coffee mornings.

If you are interested in finding out more, or keen to do something amazing, please contact Claire on 01905 27525 or e mail volunteering@onside-advocacy.org.uk

A promotional image for Onside charity. It features a smiling woman with glasses wearing a blue t-shirt with the Onside logo. The background is a brick wall. Text on the wall includes a quote: "I'm having the time of my life" attributed to Angela, an Onside Volunteer. Below the image is a green banner with the text "Make the right choice and volunteer with us today!". At the bottom, there is contact information: "www.onside-advocacy.org.uk", "Tel: 01905 27525", and a description of the charity: "Your local charity making better lives possible for disadvantaged adults across Worcestershire and Herefordshire." Social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn are also present.

Credenhill Community Hall

November 2013

New storage and repairs are almost completed at C.C.H. We aim to improve the Hall in stages, to make it as user friendly as possible. We cater for many community groups and clubs who are able to use this valuable village resource for events and meetings, at a reasonable cost. All money is used for the improvement and upkeep of the Hall and is run completely by volunteers from the groups who use the Hall regularly. We receive no financial assistance from any other source and we are a charity run by and for the community of Credenhill.

Don't forget if you have an event coming up and would like to hold it in a pleasant, light, airy hall with a large outside grassed area [big enough for a marquee] then come along and have a look at Credenhill Community Hall. We can give you details of license holders who will provide a bar for your function if you need one. What is more it will not break your budget ! Please contact us for more information.

Magna and Young Magna

NOVEMBER

MAGNA'S ANNUAL PANTO 2014

It is our annual tradition to perform an annual Panto, this tradition was changed a little when last year we had to change our performance time to coincide with the February half term and we changed our venue to Whitecross school. We are pleased to say we will be at Whitecross school once again in 2014 from February 20th to 22nd and we will be delighting audiences with 'Alice in Pantoland'. We will begin rehearsals for the production early November we are looking for new cast members, both children and adults, so if you are interested please ring either number below.

October production

Our Autumn production from 24th to 26th October is 'Bloodline' another original production for this multi-talented group. It traces the story of a young woman who is fascinated by an ancestor who in 1937 is hanged for murder. It is played out in the present day and 1937 and leads to a surprising conclusion as she finds out the facts behind the events leading up to the death of Violet. Book tickets on 01432760115 or 276948.

Charity and Magna

During 2012/2013 Magna raised £500.00 for the R.N.C. with their panto £1000.00 for St Michael's hospice with their 'Magnathon' and £210.00 for 'Beth's Wish' at the panto 2013. We are continuing to support this charity for future productions this year with bucket collections.

2014 WITH MAGNA

You can look forward to an eventful year in 2014 with quite a few surprises in store. In particular watch out for the Young Magna production in early Summer, taking a different format this year which will really show off the talents of our Youth Group as well as giving them a challenge.

NEW MEMBERS WELCOME

Most of what Magna and Young Magna does is developed from performing arts workshops where we work out scripts and scenes, music and dance using improvisation. We aim to teach performance skills to those who wish to learn in a fun and fulfilling way to be a part of either group see details below. If you or your child would like to join, ring or e mail now for information or to book your place. This is a community group and so is affordable and fun. If membership is full we have a waiting list.

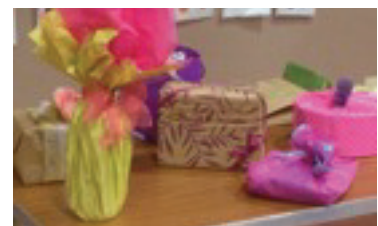

Your local performing arts group Magna, meets every Tuesday 7.30p.m. Young Magna for 8-16year olds each Sunday 2.30p.m. to 5p.m. New members are always welcome so come along and join us if you would like an inexpensive and enthralling way to pass some of your leisure time. Ring for details of how to join: Val 01432750115 Betty 01432760891

Burghill and Tillington W.I.

Next meeting - November 19th - AGM - When we look back on the year and also enjoy a light-hearted quiz. It is requested that all members attend as this is the time to elect new committee members.

At our October meeting we had the pleasure of Kathy Knill showing us how to wrap our gift parcels in style. Simple techniques to stunning effect. Also very cost effective. Parcels this Christmas wont be dull.

All meetings start at 7.30pm and finish with a delicious tea at Simpson Hall, Burghill.

Occasional visitors are very welcome so do please come along and see what the WI is all about. We can also be found on Facebook (Burghill & Tillington WI)

St Mary's Church Churchwardens' Report

Although it has already been said elsewhere I cannot express enough our thanks to Gordon Batchelor for resurrecting the Village Fete. It is many years since the village worked together to create such an enjoyable day. Gordon and his committee have worked extremely hard over the last few months and should feel delighted with the results.

Next year's main event for the church and other organisations will be the Open Gardens /Scarecrow Festival. This will take place on Saturday and Sunday June 28th and 29th. We already have villagers who are willing to open their gardens and some sponsors for the prize money for the scarecrow competition. If you would like to be involved please contact Jean Hawkins Bowles or myself. We will hold our first general meeting after Christmas so WATCH this Space.

49 people attended the 2 services we held to celebrate Harvest. Padre Ann Hitchener led the All Age Harvest Worship for which the church was vibrant with harvest colours. She encouraged us to think about how we are perceived by others and what gift we each give to those with whom we come into contact. Unfortunately the congregation still consists mainly of the older generation though we are pleased to see 2 younger members actively involved in the service and Donna Jones continues to encourage members to participate more during the worship.

The evening Harvest in the Community Hall was led by Snowy and Angie Deane when we were encouraged to think about how little some families have to exist on. The evening finished with an enjoyable social gathering including a ploughman's supper consisting of home made bread, cheese and pickle followed by apple pie and cream provided by members of the congregation. We would like to thank everyone who brought gifts for the Hereford Community Larder, an organisation which provides basic food parcels for struggling families.

Our next social event is a film show with supper on November 30th in the school. There is more information elsewhere in the CCN.

November 10th is Remembrance Sunday, a day which is particularly poignant to Credenhill with all its service connections. Do join us at the war memorial.

Christmas is just around the corner. If, like me, you think it starts earlier every year, I apologise, but we have to plan ahead to make sure everyone knows what is happening.

Our Christmas Fayre with Father Christmas will be held on Saturday 7th December from 2pm - 4:00pm. The church is holding a Christmas Tree Festival to complement the village Festival and this will take place from Sunday 8th December. The trees will be on display throughout December and there will be a community concert on Friday 13th. (More details next month.)

We are still looking to increase the members of the flower rota. You don't have to be a flower arranger. A vase of flowers is often all that is needed. We do have special services when we put in more flowers, on stands or in the window sills and would welcome new people to help with this. (Our next event will be Christmas and we will decorate on Friday 20th December). If you would prefer you may give a donation for a flower arrangement, for a family celebration or to remember a loved one's birthday etc. If you would like to help in anyway please contact Jean Hawkins Bowles. Dorrie Coates 761935, Jean Hawkings-Bowles 769413.

Dear Friends,

The Two Minute Silence has always been an important part of my life, having a grandfather who served in WW1 and a father who served in WW2. I saw active service in Northern Ireland at the height of their troubles in the 70s, and since then the Two Minute Silence has had new meaning to me. The history behind the Two Minute Silence was that on 7th November 1919, King George V issued a proclamation asking that: "at the hour when the Armistice comes into force, the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, there may be for the brief space of two minutes a complete suspension of all our normal activities... so that in perfect stillness, the thoughts of everyone may be concentrated on reverent remembrance of the glorious dead." An Australian journalist originally suggested a five minute silence, but that was thought too long.

As the Union Flag bearer of the Peterchurch Branch of the Royal British Legion, I used to try and imagine the faces of the local men who gave up their lives for their country in those two minutes - there were so many of them, and that list included a Falkland War casualty. Snowy has been trying to find out about the Credenhill War Memorial list of men who died during the wars; this helps us to remember that they were real people with real families they left behind. Remembering them is important as it means we appreciate what they did so that, today, we enjoy freedom and democracy that would most certainly have been lost but for them. War today is different, but serving men and women most definitely do so for Queen and country - representing us all; mainly in a peace-keeping role, and they need our prayers. When someone tragically dies on active service it brings to mind a sacrifice being made for us all. This reminds Christians of the ultimate sacrifice God made for us all when Jesus died on the cross. This happened because God loves each one of us so much that he wants us to have eternal life and our sin prevents this, so Jesus bore our sins on the cross.

We will hold our Remembrance Day Service at the War Memorial starting at 10.45am, where we will hold the Two Minute Silence before going down to the school to continue the service. It will be a service that is family friendly and we want to encourage people of all ages to join with us to Remember. As last year, you might want to bring a Poppy cross, or just a Poppy or flower, or some other token, to place at the memorial to help you remember someone close to you who has died serving their country, and there will be space in the service for you to place it at the Memorial. It will be a service with opportunity to ask God to forgive us, to pray for those serving in the armed forces at this time and to commit ourselves to work for peace in the world. The collection will go to The Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal, which gives long-term help to ex-servicemen and women and their families who are in need.

With every blessing,
Rana

What's on?

Friday 1st November: "Argo" (15)

Based on true events, this dramatic thriller "Argo" chronicles the life-or-death covert operation to rescue six Americans, which unfolded behind the scenes of the Iran hostage crisis -the truth of which was unknown by the public for decades. On November 4, 1979, as the Iranian revolution reaches its boiling point, militants storm the U.S. embassy in Tehran, taking 52 Americans hostage. But, in the midst of the chaos, six Americans manage to slip away and find refuge in the home of the Canadian ambassador. Tony Mendez (Affleck) comes up with a risky plan to get them safely out of the country. A plan so incredible, it could only happen in the movies

Ice-creams and tea and coffee are available in the interval.

DO WE HAVE ANY KNITTERS AMONGST US?

Now the weather is turning colder the dogs in the kennels would really appreciate some comfy jumpers to make them that extra bit cosy during the chilly nights.

We need them in all shapes and sizes and we promise photos for you.

Please share with your friends, lets keep the dogs warm this winter

Simple Dog Sweater

Note: larger sizes are indicated in parentheses)

Aran weight or thick yarn

Size 8mm needles

If Double knit: Knit 2 yarns together or use size 4mm , but add extra stitches

BACK PIECE

Cast on 25 (31, 37, 43) stitches. Work in Garter Stitch until piece measures 7 (12, 14, 16) inches from beginning.

Decrease Row: K 1, K2 tog, K to last 3 stitches, K2 tog, K 1. Just 23 (29, 35, 41) stitches should now remain.

Knit 3 more rows, then do another Decrease Row every 4th row, 4 (4, 5, 7) more times. You should then have 15 (21, 25, 27) stitches remaining. cast off.

TUMMY PIECE

Cast on 11 (13, 15, 17) stitches. Work in Garter Stitch until piece measures 5 1/2 (8 1/4, 11 1/4, 11 3/4) inches from beginning.

Decrease Row: K 1, K2 tog, K to last 3 stitches, K2 tog, K 1 until 9 (11, 13, 15) stitches remain.

Knit 4 rows. Repeat Decrease Row ever 5th row 2 (3, 4, 5) more times until 5 stitches remain. Cast Off.

FINISHING

Starting from bind off edge, sew sides of Tummy Piece to Back Piece for 2 (2 1/2, 3, 3 1/2) inches. Leave the next 3 (3 1/2 4, 4 1/2) inches open on each side for legs, then sew closed remaining length of sides.

How easy is that? For a variation, more experienced knitters may want to add a few inches of ribbed collar.

GARDENING by Doug Wellin

What's the picture you have in mind when you think of the month of November? Perhaps dark and dank days, fogs, chills, gloomy greys and browns. It can sometimes be so, but why not brighten it up? It's a great month in the garden, and there's plenty to do that will anticipate sunshine, colour and goodies when the season turns round again.

November is the best month of all for planting deciduous shrubs, roses, clematis, fruit trees and fruit bushes. I prefer to buy roses bare root, which usually means selecting the varieties well in advance and sending away to specialist nurseries for them. That way you can prune the roots and spread them out properly in the planting hole, and given a good planting in good soil in the right place they'll be very happy and get away well next Spring. If you buy them in pots from a garden centre make sure they're strong and healthy, and not pot-bound. Sometimes they haven't been grown in the pot, in which case the compost might all fall away as soon as you get them out of the pot, but don't worry too much about that because the compost around the roots in the pot is likely to be exhausted. Prune back any damaged or straggly roots with sharp secateurs, and plant so that the graft union is about an inch or so (2-3cm in new money) below the soil surface, allowing that the soil will probably sink more than the rose will. Always dig out a big enough hole for the rose to go into comfortably without cramping the roots, and re-fill it with decent soil with plenty of humus in it. A good watering with a watering can will settle the soil around the roots better than treading it with your heavy boots.

The reason why November is such a good month is that deciduous plants have now sufficiently settled into dormancy not to have their constitutions upset by being unsettled when in full leaf when their feeding and drinking demands are great. Plus the soil is still relatively warm so that they can get their roots established in time to get going in the Spring.

If you are thinking of planting a hedge and you want it about shoulder or head high but no higher, why not think of beech? It's usually available bare root at reasonable cost, and if you close-plant it, say no more than 2 feet apart (60cm), the close-planting will restrict its vigour and the hedge can be kept at the height you want it quite easily. It's far nicer, more attractive, more interesting, more manageable and much less work than a dreaded conifer or privet hedge.

If you've got a veg plot you'll probably be harvesting what's in it and digging it over, in which case dig in anything that will improve the soil texture. Composted stuff from the compost bin is excellent, and sometime I'll write something about compost bins and the making of good compost.

You can get ahead if you want some very early broad beans next year by planting a hardy autumn-sown variety such as Aquadulce – this month won't be too late. If you've got an apple tree, or more than one, you can begin winter pruning – once you've got the framework of the tree prune side-growths back to 4 inches or so, if possible to fruiting spurs but with some varieties if you prune the side-growths back they will form fruiting spurs.

No bonfires on the 5th unless you make sure you're not roasting a hedgehog.

The children had lots of fun baking biscuits and cakes for the World's Biggest Coffee Morning.

They invited parents to join them for their morning break and raised over £60 for the Macmillan Cancer Support Appeal.

Hereford & Worcester Fire Service Consultation

Dear Resident,

As part of a far-reaching consultation exercise Hereford & Worcester Fire Authority is seeking your views on how it will provide services in the future.

The Fire Authority received the draft Community Risk Management Plan (CRMP) at its meeting last week, which sets out how Hereford & Worcester Fire and Rescue Service intends to make some of the required savings from its frontline operational response - whilst at the same time having the least impact on the communities in Herefordshire and Worcestershire.

The plan proposes significant changes to fire engines and fire stations in order to address a predicted annual budget shortfall which rises to £4.7 million within three years.

As part of the extensive 12-week consultation programme your organisation is invited to read the CRMP and respond to the questionnaire, which are now available on the Service website www.hwfire.org.uk/consultation to be filled in online or printed out.

If you believe there are other people in your parish who should be given the opportunity to respond then please share this information with them.

The consultation period ends on Friday January 10 2014 and an analysis of the results will be brought back to the Fire Authority for consideration on February 19 2014.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.
