Dear Friends

'How does that work?'

One of the inevitable questions from an inquisitive child can at times, although sometimes in muted fashion for fear of being criticised, be heard ringing round the fringes of the church community - how? I think - maybe because I am at heart a scientist - that it is a perfectly reasonable question.

So how do freewill - the sense I have that I can choose what to think and how to act - and predestination - the sense that God has a plan that he is carefully bringing to fulfilment - actually fit together? This is not, by the way, just a theoretical question that I am posing for the fun of it, but a real line of enquiry about what will be happening, we trust, later this month.

The Bible is a marvellously uplifting exploration of God's grace and power at work and what that means for us as Christians, especially Ephesians Chapter 1. The whole chapter echoes with glory! But it is also stuffed full of the concept of God's plan and purpose, God's choice, and God's fore-knowledge, which can leave a modern, Western, self-referencing mind wondering where "I" fit in! I firmly believe that we can only respond to this mystery with worship!

So why this topic this month? The simple answer - I chose it! At least, that is what it feels like! But the practical application comes at the end of this month, when an advertisement will appear, asking people who are so inclined to apply for the three vacant "parish priest" jobs at Credenhill, Fownhope and Lugwardine. You see, I believe that God already has a plan - and that in his wisdom he knows who he is calling to come and join us. But what we need is for those people to recognise the possibility of that call; we need the short-listing panel to have God's spirit guiding them; and we need the interviews to lead to the "right" outcome.

It will make a big difference to those parishes to believe that God has called and appointed their clergy. And it will make a big difference to those clergy, to believe as they start their new work that God is behind the move, and is smiling as his plans are worked out! Then we will see in each place the fulfilment of that wonderful phrase from later in Ephesians (Eph 2:10) "For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them"

Update on the Credenhill Red Cross Village Warden.

My name is Barbara Symonds. I am the new British Red Cross Village Warden for Credenhill. The previous warden Lynda Clifton has now resigned from the organisation and I have taken on the role.

I have lived in the village since 1996. Professionally I have 8 years experience of working in Social Care throughout Herefordshire.

The function of a Village Warden is to be a source of information and support to people in the community experiencing ill health, bereavement, financial or other personal crisis. I wish to work with the established groups in Credenhill, which provide social activities and support within the village for older people, e.g. Credenhill Friendship Club and Taste for Adventure, along with the local Church. It is my aim to promote and work with the existing groups and professionals providing another source of help within the community. My post is part time at 12 hours weekly.

If I can be of any help please ring me on 01432 761124 or Email bsymonds@redcross.org.uk.

CONSULTATION – REVIEW OF SUBSIDISED BUS SERVICES 2011

Herefordshire Council supports the provision of an extensive network of subsidised bus services across the County. We are facing significant budget pressures and are trying to make savings through more efficient service operations.

We will do all we can to avoid withdrawing services but we cannot rule this out. We want to know your priorities for the bus network and would like to know what types of service are most important to you.

Tell us what you think

Questionnaires are available from our Customer Service Centres or can be completed online at www.herefordbus.info.

Consultation ends 15 July.

it is important that as many locals as possible fill in this form to try to prevent the village from losing any bus services. Even if you do not currently use this service there may come a time when you need it and by then it may be too late.

Taste for Adventure
Credenhill & Burghill Friendship Club's trip to Alnwick

Forty of us enjoyed a weekend away on the 20th -23rd May visiting the Gardens, Castle & Treehouse at Alnwick. The gardens were beautiful & were awash with tulips sweeping down through the cherry orchard. The highlight of the trip to the Treehouse was negotiating the two suspension bridges which caused a lot of laughter & a few people to face their fear of heights but all accomplished the crossings.

On Sunday we stopped off at York for sightseeing & lunch with our final stop at Wetherby for the night before our return trip home on Monday. The hotels were clean & comfortable & food was good but most of all we all enjoyed the being together & having a good laugh.

The Helen Vereker Singers

The very talented and entertaining singing group The Helen Vereker singers performed at Credenhill Social Club on Saturday 28th May, and helped raise over £200 for St Michaels Hospice.

There was a good turnout covering all ages who really enjoyed every minute, so much so, that towards the end of the evening every one was standing and singing and many could not resist getting up to dance.

A video recording was made of the evenings entertainment and will soon be ready to show at the club.

The evenings entertainment was that good that there was no hesitation in inviting them back on Saturday 9th July for another fun packed evening.

This time they will be raising funds for another worthwhile charity MDF Bipolar.

Admission will be free but there will be a number of raffles and draws for this extremely worthy charity.

Anyone who has not yet seen this group of singers, do not know what they are missing. They have also recently made a CD that is well worth buying, but nothing can beat seeing and hearing them live.

Role on the 9th July.

Roger Shutt.

What is MDF Bipolar.

MDF Bipolar is a little known charity that gives support to sufferers of the misunderstood disability of Bipolar.

Although most people may have heard of Bipolar, very few people really know the effects and problems associated with what is quite a common illness recognised as a disability.

There is more than one type of Bipolar and different degrees of the effects, but basically it involves mood swings from extreme highs to extreme lows.

Attacks of Bipolar can happen at any time, but can be triggered by Stress and major emotional upheaval. Although most sufferers control the effects with medication it can still be very difficult to live with.

MDF Bipolar is a charity funded by donations that helps sufferers to come to terms with and handle their illness on a day to day basis, not only advising and supporting the sufferers but also their friends and families. Providing a life line to many.

Without charitable donations they would be very limited in what they are able to do.

So for The Helen Vereker Singers to hold a concert in Credenhill to raise funds is an extremely kind thing for them to do and very much appreciated.
Bekki Marshal.

Credenhill Community Hall

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

This took place on Thursday June 9th it was attended by representatives of most groups who use the Hall. Committee officers were re-elected with their agreement. The main discussion centred on the progress made with the refurbishment of the Hall during the past twelve months and the plans to continue during the next year. It was nice to meet the new parish council clerk , Jenni Everall, who is working with us to resolve a long standing anomaly with how services are delivered. Thank you to all those hall users who have donated money to the Hall for new Blinds which we will be purchasing soon.

Don't forget if you have an event coming up and would like to hold it in a pleasant, light, airy hall with a large outside grassed area [big enough for a marquee] then come along and have a look at Credenhill Community Hall. We can give you details of license holders who will provide a bar for your function if you need one. What is more it will not break your budget! Please contact us for more information.

Credenhill Friendship Club

The trip in June was very enjoyable. Alan our driver took us on a lovely scenic route to Swansea, stopping on the way for coffee. At Swansea there was plenty to do – Shop till you drop – walk around the Marina or visit the Museum devoted to Dylan Thomas.

Then on to the Mumbles, very pretty, some of us went on with Alan to park the bus at Bracelet Bay which was very nice also, of course, we were lucky with the weather which added to a great day out.

Please note below in August we are going to have a Beetle Drive with a difference, so come along and have some fun.

Mair Granthier will be coming to give a talk on “Night Shift at the Hereford Baptist Church” very interesting not to be missed.

Dates for your Diary

Thursday 7th July 2011 @ 7.30pm - Mair Granthier a talk called “Night Shift at the Hereford Baptist Church”.

Hereford Cathedral Exhibition

Let in the Light: Hereford and the Making of the King James Bible

This special exhibition in the Mappa Mundi & Chained Library exhibition traces Hereford's contribution to some of the English translations of the Bible, including the cathedral's copy of the 1611 King James Bible. The exhibition also has on display the eighth-century Hereford Gospels. A charge is made to view the exhibition. Monday – Saturday 10 am – 4.30 pm: open Sundays until 28 August 12 noon – 3.30 pm

Tower Tours

Would you like to help run this year's tower tours at Hereford Cathedral? If you are able to lead a few days each year, or help on a weekly basis, during the coming holiday periods Preb Kay Garlick (01432 374214: kay.garlick@herefordcathedral.org) would be delighted to hear from you.

Cathedral choristers

Do you know of a boy, aged 6–8 years of age, who might be interested in joining the internationally-renowned Hereford Cathedral Choir? As well as singing in the cathedral, the choir regularly tours (South Africa last October), broadcasts on TV & radio (BBC Radio 3 in November), performs in London (Guards' Chapel in November) and takes part in the world-famous Three Choirs Festival.

It may be your son, or equally it may be a grandson, nephew or the son of friends – sometimes a gentle nudge of the parents might be needed! If a parent or guardian would like an informal discussion about the opportunities, Geraint Bowen, the director of music, would be delighted to hear from you (01432 374238, organist@herefordcathedral.org or visit www.herefordcathedral.org). All choristers receive generous scholarships to the cathedral school, in some cases, fully-funded places can be made available.
