Sunset Vigil (Afghanistan)

The news is spread far and wide
Another comrade has sadly died
A sunset vigil upon the sand
As a soldier leaves this foreign land

We stand alone, and yet as one
In the fading light of a setting sun
We've all gathered to say goodbye
To our fallen comrade who's set to fly

The eulogy's read about their life
Sometimes with words from pals or wife
We all know when the CO's done
What kind of soldier they'd become

The padre then calls us all to pray
The bugler has Last Post to play
The cannon roars and belches flame
We will recall, with pride, their name

A minute's silence stood in place
As tears roll down the hardest face
deafening silence fills the air
With each of us in personal prayer

Reveille sounds and the parade is done
The hero remembered, forgotten by none
They leave to start the journey back
In a coffin draped in the Union Jack

Sgt Andy McFarlane, 2009.

STOLEN

To the person or persons who stole a pair of mens green hunter wellington boots and a pair of black floral girls wellington boots from outside my house on 18th October - I hope you are feeling proud of yourself. It must be a great achievement for you to be able to take someone else's property without asking. Maybe you have a conscience, if so it would be nice to have them returned.

Friday 4th November: "Carve Her Name With Pride" (U)

Violette Bushell is the daughter of an English father and a French mother, living in London in the early years of World War 2. She meets a handsome young French soldier, Etienne Szabo in the park and takes him back for the family Bastille Day celebrations. They fall in love, marry and have a baby girl by the time Violette Szabo receives the dreaded telegram informing her of his death in North Africa. Shortly afterwards, Violette is approached to join the SOE (Special Operations Executive). Should she stay and look after her baby or "do her duty"?

Friday 2nd December: "Wild Target" (12)

Victor Maynard is a middle-aged, solitary assassin, who lives to please his formidable mother, despite his own peerless reputation for lethal efficiency. His professional routine is interrupted when he finds himself drawn to one of his intended victims, Rose. He spares her life, unexpectedly acquiring in the process a young apprentice, Tony. Believing Victor to be a private detective, his two new companions tag along, while he attempts to thwart the murderous attentions of his unhappy client. Black British comedy at its best with great performances from Bill Nighy, Emily Blunt and Eileen Atkins

Ice-creams and tea and coffee are available in the interval.

In October Neasa Braham gave a delightful talk on her "gap year" when she joined Raleigh International for a few months in Malaysia and then spent winter skiing in France. ## Light up a Life 2011

'Light up a Life' services are held worldwide at Christmas time to remember and celebrate life. Each light is dedicated to a loved one, whether in memoriam, to celebrate the gift of friendship or to mark a special occasion. The lights lit by St Michael's Hospice are also beacons for everything that St Michael's stands for: giving care and support to local people with life-limiting illnesses and to their families and friends, in Herefordshire and the surrounding counties.

This year services are being held at 27 locations around the county, which we hope will allow people to remember their loved ones at a venue closer to home. The Hospice website has full details of all Light up a Life services taking place between Saturday 19th November and Monday 19th December: www.st-michaels-hospice.org.uk. Dedication forms can be obtained from any St Michael's Hospice charity shop, the venues hosting a service and the Hospice itself. For further information contact the Fundraising Team on 01432 85100.

Successful Photographic Competition

Snowy and Jean thank everyone who contributed (photographers and sponsors) to the compiling of the Herefordshire Calendar 2012. We were very pleased with the interest and the standard of the entries - unfortunately only 13 could be chosen for a 12 month calendar (1 for each month and 1 for the cover.)

However, we would like others to see the results and Jean is arranging an exhibition at 3 The Mews, Station Road, on Tuesday, 29th November from 6pm - 9pm - come and browse, have a chat and a drink with a mince pie.

The Calendars are now on sale at £6.00 each - please sell as many as you can as this is a fund raising effort for the upkeep of our lovely historic St. Mary's Church.

To buy calendars contact any PCC member or phone:

01432 761684 or 011432 760702

WELL DONE EVERYONE!
